

Club 50+

The Club 50+ programme offers a complete package, exclusively for people aged 50 and over who want to travel, meet like-minded people and improve their English.

This course is suitable for:

- the young at heart!
- mature students who want to make the most of their time on full and exciting social programmes
- anyone with a genuine interest in foreign cultures and a desire to broaden their world view.

Improve your English

An emphasis on speaking, culture and practical English underpins our Club 50+ course. You will be placed in a class of just 6 students from different backgrounds and nationalities, all of whom are over 50.

Explore Brighton or Malta

The excursion programme includes activities that will help you discover the unique location you are visiting. You will discover Malta's incredible history and have the opportunity to enjoy the wonderful Mediterranean cuisine. In Brighton you can experience the delights of the town described as London-by-the-Sea.

Meet like-minded people from all over the world

You will study in small classes, take part in group activities, and have free time to create friendships with people from many different countries.
