

WELCOME TO ELC

Since 1978, students of American English have enjoyed the best language training available anywhere. With a center on the east coast in Boston and another center on the west coast in Los Angeles, you can choose the location and ambience that interest you the most.

At each center you will find the variety of academic programs expected from the leading institution in its field. Each center is located in a highly desirable neighborhood where daily life has its own distinctive character. To help you discover the area's unique cultural and leisure time offerings, each center also offers a special combination of activities, events, and excursions.

From warm sandy beaches and palm trees to world-famous universities, museums, historical sites, theme parks, and major film studios, ELC can promise you a most exciting and memorable stay.

As you go through this brochure and the included application, you may have some questions. Please feel free to contact ELC by mail, telephone, fax, or e-mail. Addresses and numbers are listed on the application, and we are always happy to be helpful.

Let ELC put your American English study
plans into action.

