OLYMPIC FOCUS ENGLISH

A new course to celebrate the London 2012 Games

July and August 2012

ages 12-17

elementary level +

The Olympic and Paralympic Games are coming to Britain in 2012 and a group of lucky young learners can join the fun on Bell's exclusive new course, Olympic Focus English. Held at the prestigious Wellington College, the course combines English language lessons, afternoon and evening events and study tours with an Olympic-focused activity programme including:

- ★ a chance to see the table tennis or fencing competitions at London 2012 or visit an Olympic venue
- ★ coaching in Olympic sports including fencing and table tennis
- ★ study of the history and language of the Olympics and famous Olympians.

On Bell's Olympic Focus English programme, students enjoy:

English language lessons

At the heart of the course lies 15 hours of language tuition each week. The language lessons provide a foundation for the rest of the course, so that students can get the most out of their experience. The morning language lessons are built around a themed project, which the teachers and students agree at the beginning of the course. Previous projects have included The Environment, All About Me and Comparing Cultures.

Morning lessons

Olympic Focus activity programme

Students have a unique opportunity to explore the Olympic sports, including fencing and table tennis, and develop their skills over the three-week programme. Experienced staff will provide coaching in a range of Olympic sports and assess students at the end of the course. As well as developing practical knowledge and skills, students will also develop their English through the history and vocabulary of the Olympics.

Play a variety of sports

The highlight of the Olympic Focus English course is the chance for students to join the Olympic celebrations by visiting an official London 2012 Olympic Games venue or attending live table tennis or fencing competitions!

Afternoon and evening events

Art and crafts

Students will take part in a selection of supervised activities including other sports and creative arts, allowing them to try new things and take advantage of the many on-site facilities at Wellington College. Evening events take place daily and are a perfect end to the day. Popular events include discos, quiz nights and fashion shows.

Study tours

Horsecourts Parade, Olympic venue

The course includes a selection of full and half day visits to UK destinations such as:

- London – a chance to see famous attractions including Big Ben and the London Eye
- Bath – to visit the historic Roman Baths and beautiful Georgian architecture
- Oxford – a world-famous university town in the heart of the country

Students will prepare for each study tour in class prior to the trip and during the visit they will complete worksheets or activities and use what they have learnt in their class work. These activities will form part of their language portfolio.
