

The London Experience at Aldenham School

At Aldenham School, students are immersed in the London scene.

Museums, walks, workshops, evening coach tours, art galleries and experiences in London are the Aldenham focus. Three afternoons and two evenings are spent in London on Monday to Friday with a full day excursion out of London at the weekend. There is no extra charge for this programme.

Extra English Lessons

For those students who want more English tuition instead of the featured activities, we are offering 6 extra hours of lessons per week at all of our Centres except Aldenham. The extra lessons build on the skill areas covered in the existing academic programme.

There is no extra charge for this programme.

Extra Programmes at Churchill House Summer Centres 2010

Amazing Adventures at Trent College

Trent College offers students the opportunity to experience Amazing Adventures during the last two weeks at the Centre.

Activities include archery, mountain biking, pot holing, abseiling, roller skating, horse riding, high ropes, ice skating, sailing and dry-slope skiing. Students have 3 Amazing Activities per week plus 2 normal ones.

There is no extra charge for this exciting programme.

Football Coaching and Performing Arts at Frensham Heights

Frensham Heights offers students the opportunity to experience Professional Football Coaching during the last two weeks at the Centre. Students train with a coach four times per week.

The Performing Arts programme allows students to experience all facets of putting on a play including writing, acting, costumes, and stage set under the guidance of a professional teacher.

There is no extra charge for these programmes.

Golf, Tennis and Football Coaching at Ampleforth College

Ampleforth College offers three different types of coaching during its five week programme. The college has its own golf course and there are many regulation tennis courts and football pitches.

There is an extra charge for all three sports programmes during the first three weeks at the Centre. During the last two weeks there is no extra charge for the tennis and football, and the golf is half price.
