

Accommodation and Meals

Accommodation

Our courses can be booked with either College or Homestay accommodation.

College accommodation is available for students of our adult courses from 16 years of age and for students of the International Secondary Education Programmes in twin-bedded study bedrooms from the beginning of January to the middle of June and from the end of August to the end of the school year in December.

Accommodation for students of the International GCSE course is available in the College only. Students on this course are accommodated in twin-bedded rooms throughout their course.

College accommodation is available for students of our Junior Courses from 8 to 17 years of age in dormitories during the New Year, Easter, Summer and Autumn Junior Course Dates.

Homestay accommodation is available for adult students from 16 years of age and students of the International High School Year course from 15 years of age in twin bedded rooms throughout the year, and for Junior students from 14 years of age during the New Year, Easter, Summer and Autumn Junior Course Dates.

In the College, single rooms, as well as en-suite single and double rooms can be booked at extra charge by adult students only.

In the Homestays, single rooms can be booked at extra charge.

All are dependent on availability.

Meals

College accommodation for students of adult courses is with half-board which includes breakfast and dinner from

Mondays to Fridays and brunch and dinner at weekends. They can buy lunch at the College from Mondays to Fridays.

College accommodation for students of the International Secondary Education Programmes is with full-board which includes breakfast, lunch and dinner from Mondays to Fridays and brunch and dinner at weekends.

College accommodation for students of the Junior Courses is with full board which includes breakfast, lunch and dinner from Mondays to Saturdays and brunch and dinner on Sundays. Junior Course students who live in the College receive a luncheon voucher during their full-day Saturday excursion in place of their usual lunch.

Students organising their own excursions, who do not return to the College for the specified meal times, forfeit their meal entitlements.

All meals are of a semi self-service buffet style.

Homestay accommodation for students of adult courses is with half-board which includes breakfast and dinner each day with their homestay. They can buy lunch at the College from Mondays to Fridays.

Homestay accommodation for students of the Junior Courses and the International High School Year Course is with full board, which includes breakfast and dinner with their homestay from Mondays to Fridays, lunch from Mondays to Fridays at the College, and breakfast, lunch and dinner with their homestay at weekends. Junior students who take part in the full-day Saturday excursions receive a packed lunch from their homestays.

On the arrival and the departure day students are entitled to one meal only.

