Your Creative Malta; Valletta Old Press Prints (Club 50+ students)

We are welcomed in an artist's small gallery in Valletta, which houses a 1970's Printing Press. After an introduction to Printing and Great Masters who produced prints, we are invited to have fun with quick drawings while walking in the streets of Valletta. We will then go back in the studio to select the best six simple drawings and create our own contemporary compositions by etching them into perspex. There will be a pleasant artistic surprise when our final composition is manually rolled under the old press! Things to bring: your imagination, as well as practical and comfortable clothes.
