

HORSE RIDING

Ride at an equestrian centre that offers a wealth of experience in fantastic locations.

Each student will receive an ability test on their first day at the equestrian centre. The professional instructors will create a programme adapted to the students' abilities and select a horse or pony accordingly for the week.

Stable management will also be a part of the programme.

Key facts

- 15 hours English language tuition per week
- Horse Riding 4 days per week, 2 hours per day
- Instruction options include show jumping, dressage and stable management, and horse riding in the local countryside, dependent on level
- Students join in the whole school activity hour where they will get a chance to mix with students on other programmes
- Available at Roedean and Warminster

Each student will receive a certificate from the Equestrian Centre upon successful completion.
